[redacted] any other papers or magazines on sale. The Albanian papers cost five lek each; 'Pravda' cost 10 lek; 'Temps Nouveaux' cost 30 lek; 'Union Soviétique' cost 20 lek.

SH. - Security Police), exercises severe measures against listeners. (For example, in Jun 50 Hasan Vern, who lived in Lagja Kiraj, Shkoder, was arrested by the S. SH. because he was caught listening to the BBC. His set was confiscated, and he was imprisoned. No word had been heard of him as of Dec 52.)

Purchase of Radios

4. "There is no restriction -- except price -- on the sale and purchase of radios. The MAPO (Magazina Popullor) State Store in Shkoder stocks Czech, Soviet and Yugoslav sets. The Yugoslavian Kosmaj set costs 25,000 lek. The Soviet and Czech sets [redacted] cost 30,000 - 40,000 lek. No collective system loud-speakers are on sale. No private shops sell radio sets. None are sold on the black market.

5. "Following is the purchasing procedure for a person who can afford to buy a set. He pays the price at the MAPO store and takes the set home. He cannot use it until he gets a Leja e Radios (Radio License). The MAPO gives him a Faktura (invoice bill) which lists: name and address of purchaser, make and serial number of set, price, date of purchase. The buyer takes this Faktura to the Sek. Finances of the Kom. Eks. K.P. Rrethit Shkoder (Financial Section of the Executive Committee of the People's Board for the Region of Shkoder). He prepares no written application, simply hands over the Faktura. He is issued the Leja e Radios in exchange, free of charge. The issue is automatic, regardless of purchaser's social origin. The purchaser takes the Leja e Radios to the Benka Popullor (State Bank) where he pays the anticipated yearly fee of 900 lek. This bank in Shkoder is located in Shqipris Dega. Having paid this fee he may now use his radio. Sets are not adjusted to limit reception.

Radio Repairs

6. "Spare parts are rare. The MAPO has none in stock. There is only the State repair shop, Oficina Per Riparimit e Radiovet, where sets may be repaired. That shop has new parts of Czech, Soviet and Yugoslav manufacture and some secondhand parts of Telefunken and Philips manufacture.
